Indian Wins Two Falls Out of Three from McGrath-Gotch Beats DeRouen With Toe Hold-Fielder Jones Says "No."-Collins Wins from Pewsboy.

Chief Fighting Bear, the wily Red- | TOO MANY CONFLICTS man wrestler and protege of Jim Barnes of Springfield, lowered the colors of the local favorité, Jack Mc-Grath, the Irish Giant, Thursday night in T. A. B. hall by winning from him two falls out of three in a finish match at catch as catch can. With match at each as eaten can with each man having a fall to his credit after 45 minutes of wrestling, the In-dian Panther caught Jack for the de-cisive fall with the same hold by which he scored in their former meeting, a double eibow roll, and the Glant was beaten.

A crowd of about 400 was present that rooted enthusiastically for Mc-Grath at every clover display of streng and defensive work and fairly raised the roof when he registered a fall on the Indian with the prefitest combination of the evening, a head cissors and harlock.

The Hig bout was preceded by two preliminaries, Costello of Fitchville carrying out his contract to throw Harry Lewis twice in ke minutes by putting him down once in 7 minutes with a full Nelson and again in 15 seconds on a waist lock.

Costello appeared again in the second preliminary, going for half an hour to a draw with Harry Brann. The first man winning a fail was to win the match, a profing to the announcer, Kid wilson. This was a topnotcher in the way of preliminaries, Loc Sostello appeared again in 15 seconds on a waist lock.

Costello appeared again in the second preliminary, going for half an hour to a draw with Harry Brann. The first man winning a fail was to win the match, a predim and strength and Brann showing more science, but not lacking in good muscle beside. Aithough the under man most of the work and kept his larger opponent on the verge of fall at many stages. Both wrestlers were loudly cheered for their clever bout, in which nelther could get a fall.

For the star bout, Bill Emonds was referee and the bout was amounced to be to a finish, beat two out of three, pinfalls to count and strangle hold barred. Harry Jennings was time-keeper and Jim Burnes had a seat on pintalls to count and strangle hold barred. Harry Jennings was time-keeper and Jim Barnes had a seat on the stage to look after his man.

The two heavyweights both showed in the pink of condition as they grappled for the opening of the bout. Taking the aggressive at once, the Indian had Jack in two bad spots in the first few minutes had look fore west as had Jack in two bad spots in the first few minutes, but Jack fore apart an arm scissors and Nelson and an arm scissors and farther arm hold, coming to the top position amid the cheers of the crowd. Once Referee Emonis and to break a strangle hold which the 1--dian refused to let up on. McGrath and the Indian alternated several times but the Indian was nover satisfied un-less he was foreign it and shally had less he was forcing it and finally had McGrath bridging to escape a crotch hold. Jack jerked the Indian off his less, but the Chef was looking for a fall and landed Jack on his back in 25 fall and landso Juck on his back in 25 minutes for the first full.

Before they went on again Barnes swept the mat clear of sawfust. This was the most exciting bout of the three, through the fast work of the two men and the frequency with which McGrath landed the Indian on top of Barnes, evening up for the same tactics played by the Indian. The two wrestlers also roughed up each other's faces, the Indian starting that game and McGrath coming back. The Glant scored half a dozen flying falls on the Indian, but was not able to pin him until the end of 20 minutes, when he ted him up in a head scissors and bar hold.

In the third bout, considerable had blood showed between the wrestlers, McGrath claiming that the loddan was scratching him, and the men exchanged open hand jabs, till Sergeant Twomey told them that the rough work would have to be cut out. McGrath's star effort was in breaking away from a crotch hold, but a moment later the Indian rolled him over with the double eldow roll, winning the fall in 1. missive, and with it the match.

ty supply, the professionals find they can easily advance prices. The diffi-culty arises when attempts are made to effect any real sales, the actual demand being as meagre as the supply offering. Attempted selling, therefore, reveals a hollow condition of the market, and served as a warning to be careful about assuming burdens. The backing and filling of prices today was due to this technical condition of the market as much as to any news hearing by values. The efforts to support the market against the conditions to support the market against the reactionary ten-dency centered on the low priced rail-road stock. And conspicuous advances were made in the group under com-mon control of an interest concerned in the most spectacular of the recent ruliroad deals. The extension of these deals is rumored from time to time, and the return to the imancial district after a period of reported liness of the leading figure in the control seemed to give occasion for some of these movefirmed vesterday's rumors that the anthracite miners' representatives were moving towards a plan to avoid a cessation of work on April 1st, even in the event of a failure of an agreement on wages by that time. Reading therefore was affected by profit taking. There were reports in circulation that another luli had come in the demand for copper, introducing a temporary character for the last fey days. The views of the accepted organs of the stell and from trades gave nothing to emission over present shed and from trades gave nothing to emonetic outlinesses over present conditions, the general induced by the cut in prices being pronounced unimportant thus far. The musiety abroad over the situation in the Balkans underwent another resief, and that and the easing money outlook made foreign securities' market firm. The resistance offered to the reaction by the local slock market kept the speculative undertone confident. Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $3,428,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

IN EASTERN CONN. DATES. Schedule is a Poor One for All the Clubs, Says Benoit of Norwich-Taftville.

flicting dates for the six ball teams, that is, the dates are bunched either in the north, central or south end of the territory on the same day, when a better plan would be to assign the games so that all parts of the territory would have some game that they could go to every Saturday.

Another 'objection pointed out by Manager Benoit since he has studied on the schedule is the way a team is sent away from home for several Saturday's in succession. The Norwich-Taftville manager has a schedule drawn up which avoids all this, he says, and he believes it would be worth while for the league to consider a change and adopt his schedule for the mutual benefit of the teams.

Manager Benoit's analysis of the schedule already adopted is as follows:

Manager Benoit's analysis of schedule already adopted is as follows:
It shows tweive conflicting dates, twenty-four times when teams play two games away before they play at home, and once when a team plays three games away before they play at Both Norwich and Jewett City have

In this menner I believe one team is taking money away from another, especially Dayville and Wauregan, which both depend greatly on Panelson. pecially Dayville and Wauregan, which both depend greatly on Danielson. There should be no conflict between any of the taams which are paired for holldays. Four times during the season Putnam, Dayville, Wauregan play at home on the same day, while there are no games either in Norwich or Jewett City for the followers of the league. From a financial standpoint the schedule is a very poor one for all teams, as every team is taking money away from another while there is no necessity of it.

Every team should play six games with each other, and the schedule does not come out that way, and cannot be made to uniess it is a new schedule, and I believe the league will have to adopt a new one.

Coming to the United States.

Boston, March 25.—Richard Arnst of New Zealand, the world's champ an professional sculler, is coming to the United States next May in the hope of completing arrangements for a race for the championship with Eddle Durnan, the Canadian professional sculler. In a letter to a friend in this city, written from Auckland, N. Z., Arnst states that he will leave Akaroa, N. Z., immediately after Easter Monday and will come to the United States on his way to England, where he will row in the big professional handloap in July and where he will meet Ernest Barry, the English sculler, for the world's litle some time in September.

Arnst in his letter states that at present he is engaged in coaching Fogwell, a promising New Zealand aculler for a match on Easter Monday and that immediately after that race he will start on his long fourney. Arnst says Durnan has offered to row for $2,500 a side and has agreed to allow 18-21 are the leves his race with Durnan will be it "Toronto, but says personally he is in favor of selecting the course that would yield the largest revenue.

"Of course, I should much prefer to row in my home water," Arnst adds, "but I can see where this is hardly practicable, and I have sufficient confidence in my own ability to meet both Durnan and Barry over courses in their own countries, with which they are perfectly familiar."

Harvard Fotball Schedule.

Cambridge, Mass., March 25.—One game lighter than last year's schedule and with two other changes, the schedule and with two other changes, the schedule for the Harvard football team for next fall was announced tonight by Graduate Manager William F. Garcelon. Cornell's present schedule was made by dropping the Carlisie Indians and marks the resumption of football relations between the two colleges after a lapse of nearly a score of years. Exchanging Annapolis for West Point, the Harvard team is assured of its usual midseason try, the only game played away from home this year. Despite much rumor to the contrary, the game with Dartmouth on Nov. 13 was arranged without any additional eligibility stipulations.

The schedule follows:

Sept. 28. Bates at Cambridge; Oct. 2, Williams at Cambridge; Oct. 2, Williams at Cambridge; Oct. 2, Williams at Cambridge; Oct. 3, West Point at West Point: Nov. 6, Cornell at Cembridge; Nov. 12, Dartmouth at Harvard, Nov. 20, Yale at Cambridge.

It took 30 dozen of baseballs for Springfield to win the pennant in the Connecticut league last year. That is, Dan O'Neil was obliged to provide that amount. This is more than the amount generally needed in this circuit, even to win a pennant, for it is figured that the Connecticut league clubs altogether used but 300 dozen last year.—Spring-field Republican.
